

NEWS FROM THE WINTER RESORTS

Winter Resorts All Crowded For Washington's Birthday

Atlantic City and Lakewood Have More Gayety Than in Five Years; Large and Small Hotels Filled; 5,000 to Attend Dance at Palm Beach

All the resorts are crowded over Washington's Birthday and the week end as never before, and at some of the places, especially those nearby, such as Atlantic City and Lakewood, it was next to impossible to secure accommodations yesterday. All the large and small hotels are filled, and as a result there is more life and entertaining going on than at any time in four or five years.

The annual Washington's Birthday ball at the Poinciana, Palm Beach, which was abandoned last year on account of the war, will be held to-morrow night in order that nothing may interfere with the all-night festivities which practically have ended at midnight had it been held last evening. It is expected that about 5,000 will attend the ball, and a dance will not break up until daylight.

Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury gave one of the largest private affairs of the season last night at the Beach Club in celebration of her husband's birthday. The guests numbered eighty and they were entertained by John Steel, who sang a number of selections. Smaller dinners and other affairs are being given daily at this popular resort.

At Miami the motor boat races of a week ago stimulated life at the resort, and golf, tennis, angling and motor-boating are popular. A new form of polo, has just been added, and the grounds are being played. The grounds and clubhouse are ideal, and the presence of good horses and players makes the contest interesting. The Miami Beach Yacht Club has just been organized.

St. Augustine, Ormond, Tampa, Daytona and St. Petersburg report life is gayest and all the hotels crowded.

Hylan Rushed With Business, But Bathes Daily at Palm Beach

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 22.—The season has reached flood tide in the sense that the East Coast resorts are all jammed to their capacity, and the guests are expected to stay for another fortnight, after which it may be expected to ebb slowly until April. The Washington Birthday ball at the Poinciana, Palm Beach, which was held to-morrow night in order that all-night festivities need not be curtailed. Arrangements are being made for the accommodation of about 5,000 people.

Mr. Kahn was one of the last of the villa colony to arrive this week. He came down in the private car Pilgrimage with a party, including Henry G. Gray, and arrived at the Poinciana on Monday night in order that all-night festivities need not be curtailed. Arrangements are being made for the accommodation of about 5,000 people.

Since his return from Miami last Saturday night Mayor Hylan of New York, has been giving much of his attention to business that piled up during the first week of his Palm Beach stay. To handle it he established a business office in the Poinciana Hotel, where he is staying with his wife and daughter, but manages to get away every noon for an ocean bath and an hour in the tea room at sunset.

Mr. Hylan, who is staying at the Poinciana, has invited to one of the largest dinners of the season to-night at the Beach Club, to which about eighty guests have been asked, to celebrate Mr. Stotesbury's birthday. A feature will be the singing of John Steel, who came down from New York with Mr. Hylan.

A large dinner was given last night at the Garden Grill of the Poinciana by the Old Guard Society of Palm Beach Golfers. The committee arranging for the dinner consisted of Walter J. Smith, of Chicago, and Colonel Ernest Smith, of Wilmington. Golfers who have spent any part of five seasons in Palm Beach are eligible for membership in the society.

Countess Mankowsky, guest at Daytona of Misses Parkinson, is at the Poinciana. She is the daughter of Countess Mankowsky, who came down from New York with Mr. Hylan.

Countess Mankowsky, guest at Daytona of Misses Parkinson, is at the Poinciana. She is the daughter of Countess Mankowsky, who came down from New York with Mr. Hylan.

Countess Mankowsky, guest at Daytona of Misses Parkinson, is at the Poinciana. She is the daughter of Countess Mankowsky, who came down from New York with Mr. Hylan.

Polo Latest Sport At Miami; New Yacht Club Is Organized

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 22.—The motorboat regatta last week stimulated life here, and the remainder of the season will be an active one. The regatta in golf, tennis, motorboating, angling and other diversions. A new sport—polo—has made its appearance in Miami. The initial match was played yesterday afternoon, and the gallery at the Miami Beach field was thronged with interested spectators.

The growth of polo in Miami was recognized by the formation of the Miami Beach Yacht Club. The organizers of the new association are Mr. H. Duckwell, A. C. Newby, Commodore H. Charles W. Ketcher and Carl G. Glavin. A club house will be erected shortly on Star Island.

Glavin H. Curtiss returned early in the week from a hunting trip through the Everglades. The party were out a week, and returned with several large wild cats, raccoons, wild turkeys and other game.

The leading tarpon fishing expert of the country, Washby Jones, is spending the winter in Miami. He has been catching tarpon in Florida for many years, and is supposed to know more about the likes and dislikes of this fish than any other angler. On Thursday, he chartered the Gypsy Queen and returned with a fifty-pound sailfish, a number of barracuda and some mackerel.

Harry Stutz, the automobile manufacturer, chafed up the best record at the weekly shoot of the Miami Trapshooters Association Thursday afternoon. He shot a record of 145 pigeons out of 50, while his nearest competitor, William Hurlbut, of New York, broke 42 birds out of 50.

of New York, gave a dinner to-night at the Ponce de Leon at Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Roman. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham Biglow, with their young daughter, Miss Florence Biglow, who returned to the Ponce de Leon, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Throngs Fill Hotels For Early Holiday At Atlantic City

Trains Run in Sections From New York to Accommodate Crowds Eager to Enjoy Washington's Birthday

ATLANTIC CITY, Feb. 22.—The big Washington's Birthday crowd all week swamped the usually elastic accommodations of Atlantic City last night and to-day. Hotel men reported that thousands, who came earlier in the month, decided to remain, and thereby gave the room clerks added problems to care for new arrivals who had made reservations.

Trains from New York ran in sections to accommodate travelers. The Hotel Wiltshire, the Grand Atlantic, the Albion and several other well known houses opened up during the week, and all the small hostilities were well filled by this morning. Along the boardwalk the celebration of the holiday made cafes and smart restaurants lively last night, and special musical and social affairs are being held on the big piers and in hotel ballrooms to-night. The yacht clubs and country clubs are keeping open house.

St. Petersburg is well represented in the daily fashion parades on the boardwalk. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Powers, of New York, arrived at the Marlborough-Tourist Club was organized recently and has become a factor in entertaining visitors from all sections of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beatty and their son arrived at Tarpon Springs by automobile, having driven more than 2,500 miles since leaving their home in East Orange, N. J.

Clifford Buckman, Ensign Harry Durand and Mrs. Durand, and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ochs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Swinton Pearce, of Newark, arrived at the Dennis. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rockefeller are here with Miss Melva and Miss Norma Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. R. Bigelow Lockwood, and Master Elliot C. Lockwood in a party from Yonkers at the Dennis. Mrs. Edward H. Ward arrived at the Dennis from New York at the Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Pollock and Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Ash are among the newcomers from New York at the Dennis. Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Fiedler are at the St. Charles hotel. Miss Mary N. Wise, who recently returned from service with an American hospital unit in France, is spending some time at the Boscobel. Mrs. John Pelletier is entertaining Miss Louise Cook of New York, at the Fredonia. Mr. and Mrs. E. Golden are members of a Brooklyn party at the Alhambra. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Arthur Scott, of New York, arrived at the Strand, where Mrs. Otto Fischer, of Newark, has been joined by her son, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Paterson and Miss Ruth Paterson are in a New York party at the Strand.

Miss Olga Krassa, of London, and Miss Helen Newby, of Somerville, are visiting the Shelburne. George J. Cooke came to the Shelburne for the week end. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Vanderbilt are at the Arlington for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Morris and Miss Morris are in a New York party at the De Ville.

Lakewood Is Filled By New Yorkers for Holiday Affair

Special Correspondence New York Tribune

LAKESIDE, Feb. 22.—A banner crowd is here for Washington's Birthday. It is the peak of the mid-winter season. Hotels are filled to capacity and many proprietors have secured rooms in private homes to give visitors arriving late at quarters.

The weather proved the most delightful feature of the week. It could not have been better. Clear skies and bracing temperatures made out-of-door life most pleasant. The private skating rink at the Lakeside in the Pines enabled patrons of that hotel to enjoy ice sport. One of the skating parties out on the rink during the week was that formed by Miss F. Horner, Miss M. Cousins, Miss Edith Holland, Miss Margaret Willing, Miss Ethel Drake, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McVitty and A. E. McVitty, Jr., of Philadelphia.

Golfing and trap shooting formed the most popular of out-of-door sports to-day. There was a Washington Birthday special handicap event at the traps at the Lakeside House Gun Club, while there were several four-somes out on the links of the Country Club of Lakewood.

A fancy dress Washington Birthday ball at the Lakeside House and a formal dance at the Lakeside in the Pines this evening were among the gayest and largest social functions of the season. There were many private dinners preceding the balls, prominent among which was that of Charles L. Nichols, of Brooklyn, who has a suite at the Lakeside, and Captain J. V. McClosky, of Camp Dix. After dinner the entire party joined the dancers in the ballroom.

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

Mr. K. S. Van Wyck, of New York, is the guest for two weeks of Mrs. T. W. Messier at the Lakeside House. Another New York party here for the holiday is that at the Lakeside House formed by Miss Eliza Pish, Miss Elizabeth Harbor, Lieutenant Kenneth

T. Phillips and Harrison McMichael. Mrs. Edward C. Parrish is chaperoning the party.

Mrs. F. H. Fielders, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Miss Jennie C. Grant at the Lakeside in the Pines. Mrs. Edward S. Lacey and Miss Edith Tracey, of Evanston, Ill., also arrived this week to spend the rest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Prentiss and Mrs. Nelson J. Carmen, of Brooklyn, are spending the holiday at the Lakeside, as are Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Auchincloss, of New York.

Mrs. W. R. Grace and Miss F. A. Moran, of New York, are here on their annual winter visit at the Lakeside House. Mrs. E. P. Carpenter, accompanied by Miss E. L. Fagan, of Philadelphia, are at the Lakeside House.

At the Hotel Virginia are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McCall, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Miss Dorothy Lusk and Mrs. A. J. Palmer.

At Florence in the Pines are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Zaduk, Miss Elsa O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gutenstein, Matthew J. Sullivan, Mrs. A. Moscou and daughter.

The Britshers are dancing. London and other English cities are not exactly going crazy over dancing, but they are doing more dancing than ever before—and the recreation is increasing in violence, if that is the way to express it. The French began dancing as soon as the armistice was signed, and danced everywhere—in the cafes, on the streets, at home. The Britshers have not come to dancing in the streets, but in the cafes and halls and homes they are dancing more frequently and more persistently than ever before.

And they are dancing American dances, too. They are not confining themselves to the stately and formal dances of the past. In a sense, they are unbending and doing the dance to the ragtime and the jazz—and enjoying it. The "hideous" dances imported by the Americans, as they expressed it, have "caught on," as the American soldier expresses it, and everybody is happy.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

The French showed the exuberance of their joy at the armistice. They were signed. For four years they had been under tremendous pressure. There had been no music in the cafes, no dancing anywhere, no light and airy songs. It was much more depressing in Paris than in London, although the Britshers had their sorrows and conducted themselves with decorum under such conditions.

Mrs. Duryea Will Talk Of Her Work in France

First Civilian to Cross Battlefields With Supplies After Armistice Was Signed

Miss Grace Bristed, Miss Geraldine Miller Graham, Miss Currie Mathews, Miss Dorothy Norris, Miss Sophie Duer, Miss Katherine Knapp, Miss Priscilla Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Enos are among the young women who will assist Mrs. Nina L. Duryea in her lecture at the Colony Club next Wednesday afternoon in behalf of the Duryea war relief. There will be about a dozen girls in all, and they will pass programmes and pledge cards.

M. Guy, of the French High Commission, will introduce Mrs. Duryea, whose subject will be "The Last Chapter." She will tell how, thirteen days after the armistice, she was the first civilian to cross the battlefields of the Ardennes and the Argonne with huge French motor trucks loaded with supplies.

It is Mrs. Duryea's first address since her return from France